WCW Brings Siobhan Judd on Board!

Stillwater, MN, January 2005 - Siobhan is majoring in business and computer management and has been developing advanced computer organization skills for the last five years that she has been with the company.

In addition to working through a bachelor in business and computer management degree, Siobhan has received certifications in small business management, computer information systems, general business and business and computer management.

Siobhan has always been a "glass half full" type of person and optimistic in even the most adverse situations. She believes a positive attitude and determination can help you accomplish just about anything you put your mind to.

In her free time, Siobhan enjoys traveling, camping, hiking, bike riding, tennis, entertaining, cooking and reading. She is also very content on spending time with her family, friends, fiancé and two dogs.
